Clapping with values

This game the children can play indoor or outdoor, it's interesting and full of fun. This helps them to know the sub value and the related main value too.

The Game,

Choose one main value, for Ex- Truth; the players should have the sub values as their names. Repeat every one's name clearly, to know well.

Now tap your palm on your lap, saying 1, 2, then clap your hands for 3, 4, all should do at the same time. They shouldn't miss the beat.

Can go slow and later can pick up speed. Now one should start, instead of 1, 2, should say his/her sub value name and instead of 3, 4, should say another person's sub value name. At once without missing the beat, should say his/her sub value name and another person's sub value name. This goes on like this. If the beat is missed that person will be out.

This can be done with any difficult names too. The more they hear, quicker it becomes clear.

This is also one of the oldest games. To make the game shorter, increase the speed.
